The meeting was called to order by Chair, Mary Flick at 10:34am.

1. Review & approval of May 10, 2018 meeting minutes.

A motion was made by Joe Hoffman and seconded by Sandra Smith-Poling to approve the meeting minutes as presented. The motion was unanimous.

2. Specific Issues –

DOH/Trauma Designation – Tony Bledsoe talked about Hospital Designation. Handed out a schedule of Service Designation. DOH has now compiled it all into one application to help streamline the process. You can email Tony with any changes. New standards will take effect approx. April 2020. When Tony comes around again to talk to the Regions he will discuss those changes. Tony will send out a draft new Trauma Designation Standards. Tony has scheduled site Review teams. Will announce designation decisions on April 30. Tim will be sending an email to field questions. Please send Mary who the Forks Trauma Coordinator is.

QI Conference – No update on this

3. Data Presentations – no presentation today as Ben is attending the West Region

4. Case Presentation – Mary Flick presented trauma data.

November – Mason General, Geriatric Trauma/Falls

January – Olympic Medical, Opiates, Rage, Aggression, Delusion

March – Harrison, Pediatric Trauma

May – Jefferson, Stroke

September – Harrison, Stemi, Cares

*It was agreed to post our meeting Minutes on the NWRegion

Mary will reach out the Hospitals to confirm presentations

5. Hospital/Field Updates

Mason – slow summer, stemi is about at 30-35 minutes, stroke response has improved, in the field QI is continuing to meet.

Jefferson – also slow summer in EMS, more on the Fire side, more non-stemi case reviews.

Kitsap – quiet summer, Dr. Hoffman now Kitsap MPD in addition to previous roles.
